FRONT

As the name suggests, High Bank is in an elevated position enjoying views to the front over woodland. The front garden is mainly laid to lawn with seasonal flowering shrub and flower borders. A side drive provides leads through a gate to the detached garage with electric door to front, double glazed windows to rear and side, and personal access door to side.

REAR

One of the outstanding features of High Bank are the rear gardens with open views over farmland and countryside beyond. A paved patio lies to the immediate rear of the property leading to a feature gravelled landscaped area. To the side of the garden is a wisteria covered arbour. Beyond this the gardens are lawned with tree and shrub borders. There are two wooden storage sheds.
