LE NAVET BETE
'The Wonderful Wizard of Oz'

Join Dorothy and Toto on their fantastical and downright chaotic travels along the road of yellow bricks with an unbelievably idiotic Scarecrow, a Tin Man straight from under the Iron Curtain and a Lion whose West-End dreams seem just over the rainbow. Will they make it to the Emerald City or will the Mighty Oz and his powerful Green Army stop them in their tracks? Will Shirley the Wicked Witch be slightly more wicked than you could ever imagine? Prepare yourselves for a physical comedy bonanza of ridiculous characters, live music, hilarious dances, utter stupidity and much much more. This really is a long, long way from Kansas...

'Kinetics'

What can a teenage boy who is into free running and a middle-aged woman with Parkinson's possibly have in common? The desire to move.... Kinetics is based on the remarkable true story of two people seemingly at polar opposites. As Rose tries to come to terms with her diagnosis, an unlikely friendship springs up when Lukas literally lands on her doorstep. But will the bond between them be strong enough when things go wrong? With brilliant writing, dynamic projected images and live parkour, this play is personal, poignant and will make you laugh out loud. Recommended 12+

LOST DOG
'Paradise Lost'

A solo staging of Milton's epic Paradise Lost, and not like whatever came into your head when you read the first bit of that sentence. Combining theatre, comedy and movement this is a journey through the story of the creation of everything: a show which brings you the highlights of this well known but often forgotten tale, beginning with Lucifer's rebellion and ending with Adam and Eve's expulsion from the garden of Eden. A single man plays all the characters, creates all the scenes and, despite his best efforts, falls a little short of perfection. Suitable 14+

TIM DALLING & MALCOLM GREEN
'Shearwater'

In 1969, storyteller Malcolm Green spent three months on a small, uninhabited island off the coast of Iceland studying huge colonies of seabirds. His experiences there form the frame into which many different journeys are woven: from the extraordinary life of the shearwater to a young man's coming of age and the transformation of the gull-woman. Now Malcolm shares his stories with the accompaniment of the extraordinary musician and entertainer Tim Dalling (New Rope String Band).

'The Boy who Climbed in to the Moon'

Some pretty odd ideas are floating around Paul's street. There's Mabel, whose brother hides under a brown paper bag, and Clarence the poodle who thinks he can fly; but Paul has the oddest idea of all. He thinks that the moon is a big hole in the sky and he's going to climb into it... Anything's possible in this warm and very funny story by David Almond, award-winning author of Skellig. 'The Launch Party'

Twins Martha and Vi grew up side by side watching the stars, but recently they've drifted. While Martha stayed in their hometown laying down roots, Vi travelled all around the world training as an astronaut, preparing to launch herself into the unknown. On the night before Vi blasts off, Martha has organised a party to send her off in style. She's invited the whole village, bought snacks and drinks and is making Vi a present to remind her of home, even in the blackness of space. Launch Party is about ambition, and what makes a person successful. It's about home and how, whether we leave or stay, we always carry a piece of it with us. Recommended 8+

KOKORO - 'Masterworks'

The Kokoro quartet perform masterpieces by four of the great composers of the 20th century. Bartok's Romanian Dances provides a brilliant curtain-raiser. Debussy follows in the guise of his atmospheric piano prelude, La Puerto del Vino, and the Suite from Stravinsky's The Soldier's Tale closes the first half. After Debussy's First Rhapsody for clarinet and piano, Shostakovich's Second Piano Trio rounds off the concert. Composed in 1944, this magnificent work reflects the exhaustion of the Russian people in the wake of the Nazi invasion, as well as the death of Shostakovich's closest friend, to whom this elegiac, defiant work was dedicated.

'The Fossil Lady of Lyme'

Imagine the world is only 6000 years old and everything was created in six days. This was the England into which Mary Anning was born, just two hundred years ago. Then came the pioneering work of geologists, studying rocks and fossils. The accepted truths about the world were blown apart. Mary Anning played a key part in this extraordinary time, discovering the first complete fossil of a prehistoric reptile in Great Britain - at the age of twelve. Throughout her life, she continued to make ground-breaking and spectacular discoveries. In Alison Neil's one-woman play, Mary Anning tells her fascinating story, and that of "the fine clever men of science" who took most of the credit for her work.
