Please answer the following questions and send to by . If you need more space, please continue on to the last page.

1. Is the information clear and easy to read?

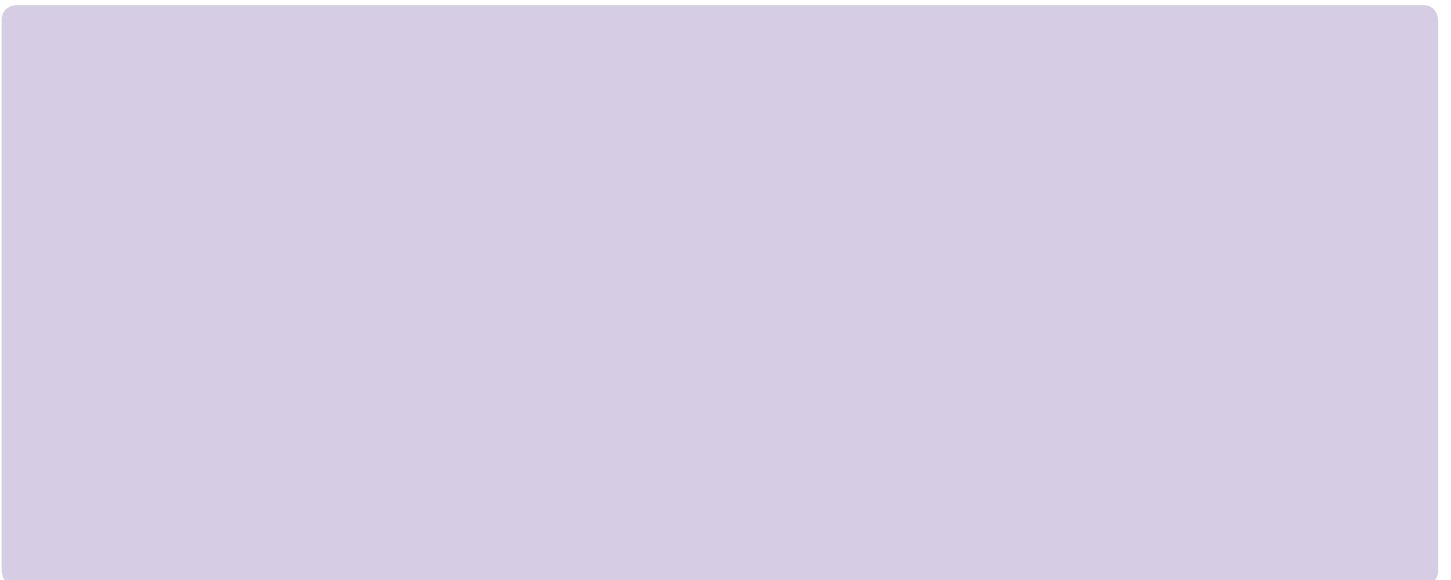

2. Are any sections unclear or confusing? If so, which and in what way?

3. Are the style and tone appropriate for the intended audience?

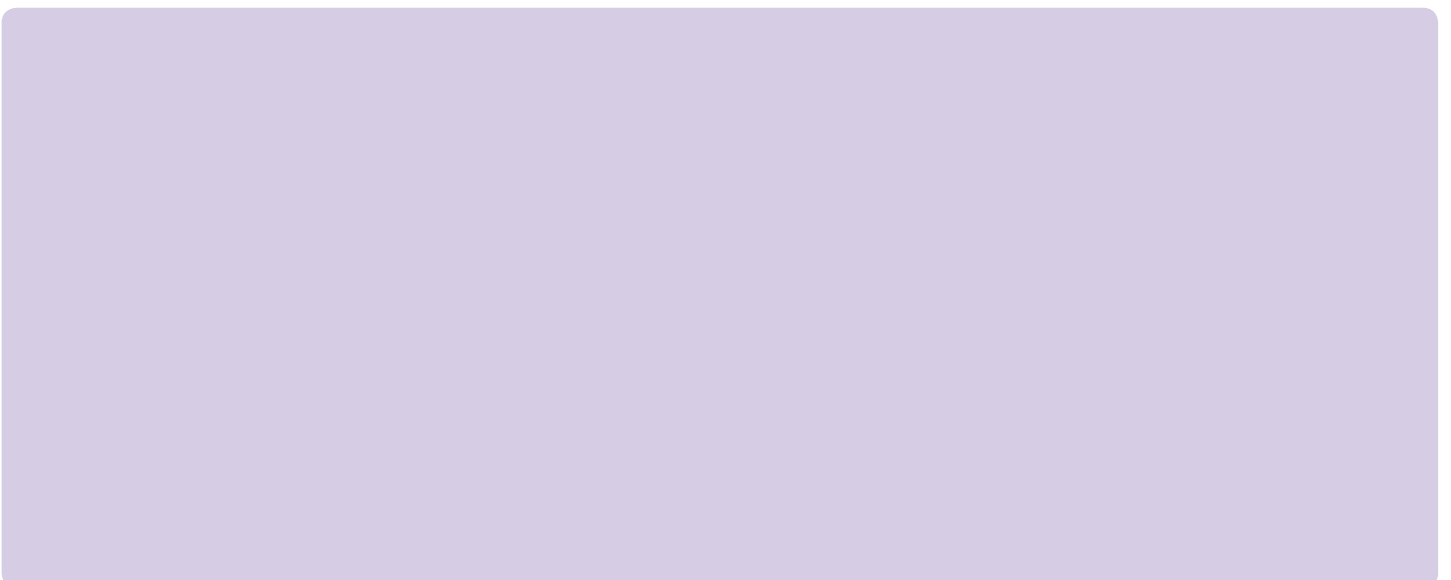

4. Does the information use jargon or medical/scientific terms without sufficient explanation? If so, where?

5. Does it cover the points you would expect?

6. Has it left out anything important, something that you feel should be included? If so, what?

- 7. Do you feel this leaflet or booklet will be useful for people looking for information on this topic?
If not, why not?

- 8. Are there any other changes or improvements you would like to suggest, based on your expectations or experience as someone with IBD?

- 9. Sometimes we use 'quotes' from people with IBD as we feel it is important to represent the patient's voice. If you would like to tell us about your experiences, and would be happy for us to use your words in this or another one of our publications, have your say below. Please note, we may edit your quote for space. If you do not wish to provide a quote, do not feel obliged. You can ignore this question, and also question 10.

- 10. If you are happy for us to publish your quote, could you please confirm your age, condition and date of diagnosis? Please note that this will be included in the publication with your quote.

Please use this space for any other comments.

A large, empty, light purple rectangular area intended for comments. It occupies the central portion of the page, below the instruction and above the footer.
