

Fronwydyr- The London Mountaineering Club hut

How to get there

Fron Wydyr
Nant Peris
Gwynedd
LL55 4UN

If using a sat-nav, drive to LL55 4UN and then the hut is another 100 metres on the left.

Fronwydyr (grid reference: 606587) is located in the village of Nant Peris.

- You can either take the M1 or M40 out of London to join the M6 northbound. If taking the M40, turn off at the M42 Junction 3A (northbound), to join the M6 northbound.
- From the M6, after passing Birmingham, turn onto the M54 at junction 10A towards Telford.
- The M54 will end and become the A5. From the start of the A5, follow this for 78 miles/125 km, passing Llangollen, Corwen and Betws-y-coed to get to Capel Curig.
- At Capel Curig, turn left onto the A4086 (passing the Plas-y-Brenin outdoor centre).
- 4.5 miles/7 km from Capel Curig, you will see a small building on the right. This is the famous Pen-y-Gwryd hotel (See map below).

- Turn right at the hotel and travel for 4.5 miles/7 km into Nant Peris (passing the Pen-y-Pass YHA on the way).
- The only pub in Nant Peris is the Vaynol Arms (refer to map below). Opposite the pub is a campsite (See inset map below).
- There is a right turn on to a narrow gravel road 100 metres after the pub (with a stone building on the corner).

- Another 100 metres up the gravel road, you will get to a junction. Straight ahead takes you to the campsite or turn left towards Fronwydyr. After turning left, travel uphill for 200 metres, passing a few buildings on the left.
- You will finally get to a gate on the left, marked "Fronwydyr"

Fronwydyr has parking space for about 6 cars.
