UK AIRPLAY ANALYSIS

■ BY ALAN JONES

With fewer plays and a smaller audience than at any time in the last two months, Katy Perry's Roar nevertheless tops the radio airplay chart again. But with new challenger Lorde's debut hit Royals exploding 8-2, Perry is finally under real threat of eviction from the penthouse position she has held for the last eight weeks. Roar suffered only a small dip in plays last week - falling 1.49% from 4,844 to 4,772 - but a much greater (9.73%) slide in audience from 70.02m to 63.21m.

Meanwhile, after debuting atop the OCC sales chart, Royals was red hot, increasing plays by a massive 32.26% (from 1,990 to 2,632) and audience by an even bigger 39.68% (from 40.63m to 56.75m). In her quest to be 'Queen Bee' (per Royals lyrics), Lorde's unusually sparse, celebrity-bashing song has found a ready home at Radio One, where it was aired 21 times last week, and Radio Two (11 plays). Between them, the Beeb's twin behemoths provided 47.29% of the track's audience. Of 182 other supporters, the ones to provide most airings of the song were Capital London (56 plays) followed by KISS Fresh, Capital Birmingham and Capital Manchester (55 apiece).

The '90s dance style of Storm Queen could provide the US act with a No.1 OCC hit with Look Right Through next Sunday - and radio has already warmed to its retro grooves. The track - first played, amazingly by BBC Radio Ulster back in 2010 - has climbed for 13 weeks in a row on the radio airplay chart, moving 1990-1021-750-748-458-190-132-121-72-64-40-24-12-10. Despite its arrival in the Top 10, it has a lot of growing to do - its tally of 1,535 plays and audience of 38.87m last week was achieved with support from just 67 stations - but it was the most-played record on Radio One with 27 spins, one more than second-placed Katy B's 5AM. The station provided 37.84% of the track's overall audience, although it was aired more frequently by no fewer than 20 other supporters, with top tallies of 76 from Capital's South Wales, London, Birmingham. East Midlands and South Coast franchises.

I'm not sure if there is a precedent for a track not making it into the Top 500 on the radio airplay while topping the TV airplay chart - but that is exactly what Britney Spears achieves with Work Bch! this week. The track - obviously heavily doctored for play in either medium - sprints 3-1 on the TV airplay chart, swatting aside young pretender Miley Cyrus' Wrecking Ball, which fades to number seven. With a total of 604 plays, Work Bch!'s promotional videoclip was most favoured by Chart Show TV (72 plays), Capital TV (63) and Buzmuzik (57). Work Bch! debuts at number 777 on the radio airplay chart with just 173 plays and an audience of 2.14m. Played on 35 stations last week, it had top tallies of 23 plays on Gaydio and 14 each on Dune 107.9 and Bridge FM.

Monsieur Adi and A*M*E storm Upfront

■ BY ALAN JONES

The latest floorfilling sensation from France is Monsieur Adi's What's Going On, which jumps 4-1 on the Upfront chart this week, securing a 13.79% victory margin over VenSun's Love Is Love, which vaults 12-2. In a plethora of mixes by Sanna & Pitron, Wawa, The Kncoks, ShockOne and Belanger, as well as Adi himself, What's Going On is his maiden hit in his own right, and is a stylish reworking of Soul II Soul's Back To Life decorated by the vocals of A*M*E, who previously topped the list in March as featured vocalist on Duke Dumont's Need U (100%), which achieved the rare feat of spending two weeks at No.1.

Reigning X Factor champion James Arthur's bid for the Commercial Pop crown failed narrowly last week, when his new single You're Nobody 'Til Somebody Loves You peaked at No.2. Little Mix - who won the competition the year before Arthur - aren't to be denied, squeezing over the line to score their fourth No.1 on the chart. They previously topped the chart with Wings (August 2012), DNA (November 2012) and How Ya Doin' (feat. Missy Elliott, May 2013). Their success also illustrates the point that the chart is more of a marathon than a sprint - runners-up The Wanted's Show Me Love (America) was No.1 on 30% more DJ chart returns but was less widely appreciated, and ended up marginally in arrears.

Up a notch on the Urban chart, TKO thus becomes Justin Timberlake's sixth No.1 of the year, following Suit & Tie (feat. Jay-Z, February), Mirrors (March), Tunnel Vision (July), Holy Grail (Jay-Z feat. Justin Timberlake) and Turn Back The Night, both in August.
