Description

The property is a three storey office building situated in Grattan Business Centre, Dublin Road, Portlaoise, approx 1km from the Town Centre.

The building forms part of a larger residential and office development, of which the offices are primarily occupied by the Department of Agriculture.

Car parking is provided in a combination of surface and basement spaces with total of 48 spaces.

The original Georgian building was completely re-furbished in 2006 and provides modern office space with carpeted floors, perimeter trunking, automatic censor lights in common areas, Georgian ceilings with original cornice.

Staff canteen, toilet and comms rooms are provided on each floor and a passenger lift serves all floors.

Area

Due to the nature of the occupancy we have not been able to carry out a full measurement survey and have relied upon scaled drawings provided.

Check measurements have been taken where available.
