

Simon Brotherton.

The Voice of Football & Cycling

Birth date: 14/05/1969

Born: Brighton, UK

Lives: Sussex, UK

Records / Achievements

- 2013 Became BBC's voice of cycling and now covers all of TV cycling events for the BBC
- 2016 Lead commentator for the Olympic and Paralympic Cycling for the BBC and Channel 4
- 2018 Lead commentator for the BBC Winter Olympic coverage of speed skating

Over the years Simon has established himself as one of the country's finest and most diverse sports commentators. After joining the BBC in 1990, Simon is now predominantly known as one of the top tier commentators on Match of the Day, also appearing frequently on BBC Five Live, and for BT Sport as lead commentator for the European Football Show on Sunday nights.

Simon has enjoyed real success as the BBC's lead cycling commentator after making the transition from radio to television, most notably at Rio 2016, where his performances at both the Olympics and Paralympics received deserved acclaim.

Commentary in Numbers:

- 6 Olympic Games
- 3 Commonwealth Games
- 19 Tour de France
- 6 Baseball World Series
- 4 World Cup's
- 5 European Championships
- 2 Champions League Finals
- 2 African Cup of Nations
- Boxing World Title Fights in Las Vegas
- Multiple Grand Prix Athletics & Formula One Races

Contact.

office@mtc-uk.com

020 7935 8000