

Leeds Beckett Students' Union

Decision-Making, Responsibilities and Accountabilities

The Trustees are ultimately accountable for everything that happens in the Union; they are responsible for upholding the law and overseeing management and the operational areas of the Union. The democratic structures are responsible for setting the policy framework within which the Union operates.

