e-Safety Share Session

It is more important than ever that you know about the risks and dangers that your children face when using digital technology.

Therefore, as mentioned previously, we would like to invite you all to join your children in class for an e-safety share session on 6th February, as part of Safer Internet Day, where you can find out more about how to help your children to keep themselves safe online. Please come to the hall at 9:00am, after you have dropped your children off in class; refreshments will be served and Mr Perkins (our e-Safety Leader) will give out some vital information, before taking you down to class to spend time learning and exploring with your children.

It is easy to think that this won't happen to us, but families in our community have been seriously affected by e-safety incidents, including criminal acts and tragedies. Don't ignore the risks or hope for the best – find out what you need to know, and show your children that it's OK to talk openly about their online activity. We look forward to seeing you there!

Children's Mental Health Week

Next week is Children's Mental Health Week, which we will be celebrating as part of our work towards the School Mental Health Award.

The theme of the week is 'Being Ourselves': we want to celebrate our differences, what makes each of us unique and special, and reinforce the message that pupils can speak to any of our adults if they are worried about anything. Pupils will be completing a range of fun activities throughout the week, and Mrs Dalton will be launching Children's Mental Health Week with a special assembly on Monday.

The week will culminate with a special 'Be Unique' day on Friday 9th February, where pupils can replace one item of their school uniform with a different item of clothing which makes them unique, or add an extra item to their school uniform. This could be anything from a badge or a hat, to a different pair of shoes, or a different t-shirt instead of their polo shirt. Please note that this is not a non-uniform day – there is no charge, but only one different item of clothing (which must be appropriate) may be worn along with normal uniform.
