School Council

We thank the previous members of the School Council for their hard work and welcome new members from KSI ~ Harry, Abigail and Summer

KS2 News

All of KS2 had a wonderful day at Gerrans Church as part of the “Big Write”. They especially enjoyed playing the Church Organ and ringing the Church Bells! We have also started our new Topic ~ The Commonwealth.

EYFS /KSI News

We have all enjoyed this half terms “Big Write” we visited Gerrans Church and planned our own services. Many thanks to Jill and Hayley.

Nursery News

Welcome to Sophie who has started this week.

Playtimes

Please can pupils no longer bring in any “wrestling” toys/cards or act out any wrestling type games during school. Unfortunately this has led to children becoming too physical with other each and we do not want anyone to be accidently hurt or frightened.

Many thanks

Carrick Dance

Evie, Clara, Rosie, Naomi and Jazmin performed at the Hall for Cornwall just before Easter. We worked hard, listened to others and enjoyed learning Street Dance to “Faith” by Stevie Wonder and Adrianna Grande.

School Games

It is with sadness that we have said goodbye to Mr Ayres who has left his role with the Rose-land Schools to start a new career in the Fire Brigade. Pupils and staff will miss his enthusiasm and commitment but wish him every success in his new job. We therefore welcome Mr Barnes who will take over from Mr Ayres and will be working with all the pupils on Thursday afternoons as well as starting a KS2 Summer Sports club .We look forward to working with Mr Barnes over this Summer Term.

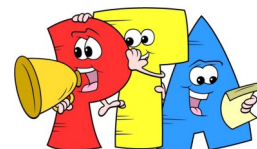

Multi Academy Trust

Again this term pupils across the three schools will be learning together — Dates and details to follow.

PTA News

Many thanks to everyone who donated, supported and helped at the Easter Bingo. An amazing £306 was raised to go towards re vamping the Playground. Well done to Millie who won "Alan" the duck.

The next event is the Summer Fayre details to follow.
