KS2 News

Many thanks to all parents for a big increase in the amount of home reading our pupils are undertaking. Those who are reading at home more are certainly experiencing progress in the curriculum reading and writing.

Please remember to continue to sign reading record books.

KS1 News

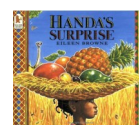

Congratulations to Lillymae and Immy our new School Council Representatives, we look forward to hearing about the exciting plans the School Council have.

We are all having fun planning our African stories and enjoying our African role play area.

Nursery News

Nursery are enjoying re-telling the story of Handa's Surprise.
