

PRESS RELEASE

Differdange, 11 October 2016

New flibco.com line to Weeze Airport

Recent inauguration of two lines connecting the airports of Baden-Airpark and Frankfurt-Hahn from Heidelberg, flibco.com continues its expansion in Europe through the opening of the new line from Cologne to the airport of Weeze with a stop in the city of Düsseldorf.

After the expansion of its network in the southwest of Germany, flibco.com is now starting the inauguration of a new line linking the airport of Weeze to Cologne passing by Düsseldorf. Thanks to 5 daily departures, flibco.com makes it easier to get to the airport for the travelers.

As a 100% Luxembourgish Company, specialized in transfer to and from several airports of Europe, flibco.com always aims to improve and to expand its network. The inauguration of this new line represents a major asset in the development and accessibility of the airport.

This new line reflects the objectives pursued by flibco.com since its creation: the permanent development of the network in aid of more and more travelers enjoying a relaxing transport. Paul De Muynck, Managing Director, asserts this willpower:

"By developing our services on new lines, we would like to offer the opportunity to more people to begin their holidays as soon as they get on the bus. Thanks to the quality service, the travelers will reach the airport with complete confidence. flibco.com keeps improving every day to meet travelers' requirements and offers them a trip in the biggest comfort of the coaches and without the stress of the road!"

Ideally situated on the Dutch border, less than one hour's drive from Eindhoven, the airport of Weeze is located in the West of Germany in North Rhine-Westphalia. This region belongs to the most populated of Germany with its 18 million inhabitants. The opening of this line represents a great possibility for the travelers coming from the big cities to reach the airport of Weeze. It is of course also a considerable benefit for the airport that receives 2 million passengers yearly.

flibco.com offers a comfortable, secure and convenient service to its passengers. The green dotted shuttles which cross the roads of the Greater Region, Germany, Belgium and France, are the ecological way to get to the airport.
