

Yes or no

Ask your child to read the questions in each box and decide if the answer is yes or no.

You could do a simple thumbs up or thumbs down once they have read them. Or if you wish, you could cut them up and sort the cards into two piles.

Remember the aim of the activity is for your child to read and understand the questions. If your child gets stuck, encourage them to sound it out.

Has a cat got a web?

Can dogs yap?

Can a duck quack?

Can a fox get wet?

Is a zebra a pet?

Will a box fit in a van?

Are fish and chips food?

Can a rabbit
yell at a man?

Is it dark at night?

Can a hen peck?

Is a thick book thin?

Is a lemon red?

Is the sun wet?

Can a vet fix a jet?

Can wax get hot?

Will a pen fit in a box?

Has a fox got six legs?

Can men jog to get fit?