

Year 4 English Home Learning Tasks for the week commencing 15th June 2020

We were so excited to discover that J.K.Rowling, the author of Harry Potter, has released her latest story online, called the The Ickabog.

J.K. Rowling is releasing the story a few chapters at a time online and is holding a competition in which children have the chance to have their illustrations featured in the book when it is published in November! How exciting is that!

Monday 15th June

Task 1- What do we learn about King Fred the Fearless? What does he look like?

Use this extract from the text to draw an illustration of King Fred.

King Fred the Fearless came to the throne on a huge wave of popularity. He had lovely yellow curls, fine sweeping moustaches and looked magnificent in the tight breeches, velvet doublets, and ruffled shirts that rich men wore at the time. Fred was said to be generous, smiled and waved whenever anyone caught sight of him and looked awfully handsome in the portraits that were distributed throughout the kingdom, to be hung in town halls.

You may need to talk to an adult, or use an online dictionary to discover the meaning of some of this more challenging vocabulary. You may ask an adult to read the chapter to you.

Please upload a picture of your work, via Purple Mash, there is a video guide of how to do this on the school website in the y3/4 homework section. We look forward to seeing your working and tweeting it for J.K Rowling to see too!
