To make you stay watching the news so you don't turn over. They act like a contents page for the programme.

Print Newspaper Headlines

Newspaper headlines need to be:

- Eye-catching
- A title for the news story
- Short and snappy.

Try It

Below are 5 explanations of news stories. Your job is to write the headline for them.

1. A boy finds a stash of gold Roman coins in the local park.
2. A girl from your local area is chosen for the Team GB Gymnastic team at the 2020 Olympics.
3. A giraffe escapes from a zoo and makes it down the road into the supermarket car park.
4. 500 dogs and their owners do a 5km run and raise thousands for charity.
5. A bridge in a local town falls into the river causing chaos for the town.

Why not read your headlines out in the style of TV news headlines... or even create TV news reports about these stories? This might help!

Puntastic!

Often, print newspaper headlines contain puns to catch your eye and make you read on. Puns are mainly found in tabloid newspapers.

Try It

Look at these puns (some based on place names), notice how the pun works and imagine a news story that would go with it based on the puns. There's no right or wrong answer!

Chew-Castle

Udders Field!

Bucket and Raid

Shiver-Pool

Double Checker Bus

Lon-Don't

Easter Runny

Things to Do Next

Make your own TV, radio or print- or web-style newspaper reports. (You might even want to film them and include roving reporter and interviewees/eye witnesses.)

Go through print newspapers and cut out good examples of headlines - make a collage poster for your classroom wall.

Write your own 'puntastic' headlines for others to create a news story around.

Create a class newspaper with articles from everyone in the class that include some great headlines. Why not work as a newsroom, splitting up the jobs of reporters, editor, subeditors, copy checkers, general manager, production manager and staff?

Glossary

- Media Industry The world of work and business for TV, radio and newspapers.
- Puns Play on words, using how words sound to swap words around to be funny or clever.
- Puntastic A pun itself... a play on words for 'fantastic'. Means: fantastic punning.
- Tabloid The smaller size of newspapers. UK tabloids include The Sun, The Mirror, The Star, Daily Mail, Daily Express and Morning Star, and The National and Daily Record in Scotland.
- Broadsheet The larger size of newspapers. Currently, there is only one UK 'broadsheet' – the Daily Telegraph. UK broadsheets include The Times, The Telegraph, The Guardian, The Independent and The Financial Times, and The Scotsman and The Herald in Scotland. They are also known as 'quality' newspapers because they deal mainly with serious issues and have high standards of dealing with the news.
