Ultimate Church Visit

What is Ultimate Church Visit?

Ultimate Church Visit is a fun, interactive and memorable school visit to your local Salvation Army church.

Designed and produced by The Salvation Army's schools team, this resource fits into the curriculum and helps Salvation Army churches support their local primary schools by delivering a fun and educational visit to their church.

Taking part in an Ultimate Church Visit is a great way for primary-aged children to find out about The Salvation Army and to experience faith first-hand by meeting and talking to people who worship and work in their community.

How does Ultimate Church Visit work?

An Ultimate Church Visit can take place during a morning, an afternoon or over a whole day. It works best with one class; however, multiple classes may be able to visit at different times over the course of a week, or at different times throughout the year.

After a welcome session, the class is divided into small groups of about six to eight pupils which travel around a series of zones set up around the church*. The church will normally set up between three and five zones, each of which focuses on a different aspect of The Salvation Army.

There are nine different zones to choose from when planning your visit (Worship, Community, Bible, Symbol, Homelessness, Music, Uniform, History, International).

Carrying out a mission in the Symbol zone

The Salvation Army and the Community game

A range of activities

Through the zones children can explore, with the help of a leader, the history, beliefs, worship and work of The Salvation Army. Activities can include:

- stories
- drama
- responding to music
- discussion
- DVD clips
- creating & designing
- games
- quizzes
- exploring artefacts

Throughout the visit pupils are encouraged to take part in discussions, express their ideas and opinions and reflect on their own values and beliefs. Activities are differentiated for younger and older pupils and workbooks can be provided to help pupils record what they have learnt, or do follow-up work back in the classroom.

Arranging an Ultimate Church Visit

If you're interested in organising an Ultimate Church Visit for your class, here's what to do:

- Get in touch with your local Salvation Army church to discuss the possibility of organising an Ultimate Church Visit for your class (use the 'Find a Centre' facility on our website to find your nearest church). *If it isn't practical for pupils to visit The Salvation Army, a team may be able to hold an Ultimate Church Visit at your school.
- Contact the Schools & Colleges Unit for more information, or for details of a local Salvation Army which can host a visit.
- Visit our website to find out more about Ultimate Church Visit and a range of other educational resources for schools.

Curriculum links

Ultimate Church Visit fits into the Religious Education curriculum, linking to the following areas:

- visiting a place of worship
- symbols and their meanings
- reflecting on religious and spiritual feelings
- expressing worship through music
- how people's beliefs impact on their lives
- how and why Christians help others
- religious stories and sacred writings

There are also cross-curricular links with PSHE, Citizenship, English, Art and Design, Music, History and Geography.

William Booth – new resources

2012 sees the centenary of William Booth's death. We're marking the year with some brand new resources about William and Catherine Booth and the history of The Salvation Army – watch out for more details!

School visits

There are 700 Salvation Army churches and community centres around the UK and Ireland, and more than 100 social service centres. Most Salvation Army ministers (officers) and youth and children's workers are happy to visit primary and secondary schools to lead assemblies, lessons or workshops, to speak to a class and answer questions, or to host school visits to their church.

Organising a visit from a member of your local Salvation Army is a great way for your school to make links with people and groups in your community and allows pupils and students to hear about The Salvation Army's work and motivation first-hand.

You can use the 'Find a Centre' facility on our website to locate the nearest church or centre to your school. Alternatively, contact the Schools & Colleges Unit and we'll help you to arrange a visit.
