

William Penn Newsletter 20th September 2019

New Responsibilities for William Penn Pupils

We are always happy to see our pupils take on new responsibilities, gaining in confidence and playing their part in the school community. Amongst this year's pupils stepping up are our new librarians, sports captains and school council members (not all pictured).

Breaktime Snacks

Some class teachers have noticed that pupils have been saying that they are hungry, especially by late morning. Children are welcome to bring in a fruit snack for morning break, although children in key stage one do have fruit/dried fruit provided under the fruit and vegetable scheme.

Green for NSPCC

Thank you for supporting Green for NSPCC today at school. We will be forwarding on a donation of £46.60 very shortly.

Family Fun Day at The Blue Idol (Reminder)

There will be a Family Fun Day at The Blue Idol on Saturday 21st September. This will be a great opportunity for new and old families from the school to visit the Blue Idol. The plan is for a picnic (bring your own), music, a short child friendly talk about the Blue Idol and games, cake and refreshments in the garden. It will be a relaxed day and an opportunity to find out more about the Blue Idol and spend some time in beautiful and calm surroundings. There is more information on Eventbrite and Facebook, where 'tickets' can be booked. It is a free event, but if people can book then it helps with planning.

Neighbourly Consideration

We know that the majority of parents are very considerate parkers, but please remember that even a quick dash to the playground and back may cause considerable inconvenience to neighbours and bad feeling directed at the school. If all drivers could avoid blocking driveways and turning in the entrance to the school, it would be much appreciated.

Safeguarding Update

Please remember that the school operates a strictly 'no nuts' policy. This includes nut based spreads. Pupils with nut allergies are vulnerable to extreme and potentially life threatening reactions and we would appreciate your vigilance.

Pupil Achievements

If you have any pupil achievements that you would like mentioned in the newsletter, please e-mail the office: office@williampenn.w-sussex.sch.uk

