

Emily Dobbie

Associate

Transfer Pricing Associates BV.
H.J.E. Wenckebachweg 2016
Amsterdam
THE NETHERLANDS
T: +31 20 894 2550
E: e.dobbie@tpa-global.com

Professional Background

- Experienced tax professional in international tax, investigations and transfer pricing with significant experience in the Middle East, Asia and Australasia.
- Member of the Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand.
- Barrister and Solicitor of High Court of New Zealand.
- BCom/LLB, The University of Auckland, New Zealand.

Proven Track Record

- Prior to joining TPA Global, Emily was a member of KPMG Egypt's international tax team where she was the main client contact person for large MNEs. She specialized in corporate income tax advisory work with regards to permanent establishment/representatives, loss set-off, double taxation and interest deduction. She advised on tax structures in a variety of regions and industries and assisted MNEs with various tax audits including corporate tax audits and audits performed on closing down of subsidiary/branch.
- Prior to joining KPMG, Emily worked at the New Zealand Tax Authority (NZ Inland Revenue Department) in the fiscal audit team as a fiscal auditor where she performed tax audits (income tax, sales tax, payroll) including corporate tax audits on MNEs and handled complex tax evasion cases, including financial analysis with forensic accounting experts.
- Emily has been involved in a joint project with the Australian Tax Authority and New Zealand Tax Authority and became experienced in reviewing advance tax rulings, and the protocols in exchange of information between Competent Tax Authorities.

Capabilities

- Design, implement, and document transfer pricing structures and models.
- Assess whether transfer pricing documentation requirements are met.
- Provide support during audits and dispute resolution.
- Fluent in English and Korean.