

Great Barford Church of England Primary Academy

'Growing together through learning, friendship and worship'

Ann Lovesey – Chair Person

I have been a School Governor for a number of years, first as a staff governor when teaching, then as a Parish Council Governor and then Community Governor. I was Chairman for several years, and am now Chairman of the Academy Council

I have taught in the Lower School sector for over 30 years, many of them at Great Barford Lower, including 15 years as Deputy Head

I have been a Parish Councillor since 1976 having moved into the village in 1966. The village has grown an enormous amount since then.

I am Churchwarden at the local Parish Church and for many years was heavily involved with the Great Barford Scout Group and the Jordan's Close Camp Site

I was very honoured to receive an MBE in the 2017 Honours list for services to education and the local community, and even more so to receive it from her Majesty the Queen in May 2018

I have been married for over 55 years, with 2 lovely daughters and 4 superb granddaughters and a great grandson.
