

List of names mentioned in narrative

(in order of mention)

To access the name in the text use 'Edit' – 'Find' and type in name – o/k

Douglas Jay MP (Labour)

Jack Straw MP (Labour) Foreign Secretary

Michael Howard MP (Conservative) and Leader of Conservative Opposition Party

Professor Richard Aldridge – Nottingham University and author of 'The Hidden Hand'

Sterling & Peggy Seagrave – Authors of 'Gold Warriors'

Paul Lashmar & James Oliver authors of 'Britain's Secret Propaganda War'

Geoffrey Rippon MP (Conservative) – Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster during Heath's Government and mover of motion to join the EEC

Dr Richard North commentator on FCO 30/1048 and co-author of 'The Secret History of the European Union'

W J Adams head of the FCO's European Communities Information Unit (ECIU) in the early 1970s

Edward Heath MP – Conservative Prime Minister in the early 1970s

Harold MacMillan MP – Conservative Prime Minister in the early 1960s

General de Gaulle – French President from 1959 – 1968

Hugo Young – writer in the Guardian and author of 'This Blessed Plot'

Jean Monnet – of Comité d'Action pour les États-Unis d'Europe long time campaigner for European Integration

Norman Reddaway – head of FCO's Information Research Department

Christopher Frere-Smith – Chairman of 'Keep Britain Out' campaign

Enoch Powell MP (Conservative)

Peter Shore MP (Labour)

Tony Benn MP (Labour)

Peter Jay presenter of the BBC Money Programme

President Sukarno of Indonesia

Geoffrey Tucker advertising expert and Coordinator of Heath's public propaganda campaign

Roy Hattersley MP (Labour)

Mr Garret - assistant to Geoffrey Tucker

Ernest Wistridge – Director of European Movement

Anthony Royle – ministerial coordinator (FCO)

Douglas Hurd MP (Conservative) (now Lord Hurd of Westwell) and Private Secretary to the Prime Minister, Edward Heath MP (Conservative)

Ian Trethowen – head of Current Affairs BBC TV

Roy Jenkins MP (Labour)

Marshall Stewart – editor of the Today Programme

Alistair Campbell – Tony Blair's Press Secretary

Mr Howell MP (Labour)

William Whitelaw MP (Conservative) – President of the Council in Heath's Government

Jack de Manio – BBC Radio 4 presenter until removed

Mr Simcock - FCO official

W K Slatcher - FCO official

President Clinton

R A Fyjis-Walker FCO official
P F Hancock – Rome Embassy
Hugh Jones – official FCO
Sir Alec Douglas Home MP (Conservative) – Prime Minister in the 1960s and Foreign Secretary in Heath’s Government
Lord Harlech – European Movement – attended many Governmental campaigning meetings
J M Crosby FCO official
Harold Wilson MP (Labour) – Prime Minister in the 1960s and 70s and Leader of the Labour Party Opposition during the debates on entry to the Common Market in the early 1970s
John Prescott MP (Labour) – Deputy Prime Minister in Tony Blair’s Government
Norman St John Stevas MP (Conservative) (now Lord St John of Fawsley) – Whip in Heath’s Government
Jeremy Paxman – TV presenter and author of the book ‘The Political Animal’
Edward Taylor Conservative MP (now know as Sir Teddy Taylor MP)
Neil Martin MP (Conservative)
Edward Brown MP (Conservative)
Eric Bullus MP (Conservative)
John Farr MP (Conservative)
J H Gray MP (Conservative)
Toby Jessel MP (Conservative)
Geraint Morgan MP (Conservative)
J H Sutcliffe MP (Conservative)
Robin Turton MP (Conservative)
Bert Oram MP
Peter Horden MP
Nigel Spearing MP
Denzil Davies MP (Labour)
James Prior MP (Conservative) and Minister for Agriculture and Fisheries in the Heath Government
Alfred Morris MP
Nirj Deva MEP (Conservative at 2004)
Hugh Fraser MP
Christopher Booker – columnist form the Sunday Telegraph and co-author of ‘The Great Deception – The Secret History of the European Union’
Dr Peter Gardener – author of pamphlet ‘The Unseen Takeover’
Lord Pearson of Rannock (Independent Conservative) – Member of the House of Lords and Co-Founder of Global Britain
Margaret Thatcher MP (Conservative) – Prime Minister in the 1980s and 90s
Count Coudenhove-Kalergi

Note: The titles given after the afore-named are not necessarily those held at the time of compilation.