

kept up a steady stream of letters and articles to the Press, working closely with the European Movement, and also drafted the replies to over 2,000 letters from the general public.

EXHIBITIONS

16. The European Movement arranged appropriate displays at exhibitions in London and in the provinces. A display at the Ideal Homes Exhibition was subsequently used at major agricultural and horticultural shows throughout Britain.

ACTIVITIES IN SCHOOLS

17. The European Movement commissioned Education Productions Limited to produce a series of wall charts on Britain and the EEC for use in schools. Occasional schools conferences were arranged and the European Movement provided speakers for school talks.

RESEARCH SUPPORT

18. IRD prepared about 60 separate background briefs for speakers, journalists, and politicians in addition to providing general reference material and speaking notes.
