

Explore Uganda's Primate and Birdlife Treasures

This 4-Day Birding and Chimpanzee Tour is perfect for birdwatchers and wildlife enthusiasts. This tour takes you to Kibale National Park, known as the world's primate capital, and Bigodi Wetlands Sanctuary, home to hundreds of bird species. Discover Uganda's vibrant ecosystems, with opportunities to spot chimpanzees and various rare bird species.

Why Book This 4-Day Birding and Chimpanzee Tour?

- Best Birding and Primate Spot: Experience the unmatched combination of birding and chimpanzee tracking in Kibale National Park and Bigodi Wetlands Sanctuary.
- Expert Guides: Professional birding guides with deep knowledge of local species enhance your experience.
- Unique Bird Species: Spot rare and endemic bird species, including the great blue turaco and green-breasted pitta.
- Cultural Encounters: Visit community-run initiatives like Bigodi, supporting local conservation efforts.

Highlights of This 4-Day Birding and Chimpanzee Tour:

- Chimpanzee tracking in Kibale National Park
- Birding in Kibale National Park and Bigodi Wetlands Sanctuary
- Encounter with over 370 bird species, including rare and endemic birds
- Scenic drives through Uganda's lush landscapes
- Professional birding guides and local community visits