

Cameltrekking 6days in Morocco hiking in Sahara and visiting different kasbahs and oasis of palm trees.

1ST DAY:

After breakfast in your Hotel or at airport in Marrakech, our car or Minibus pick you up, travel across the Tizi n'Tichka Pass, the highest mountain pass in Morocco, offering incredible views of valleys, Berber villages, and rugged peaks. Your first stop is the remote and fascinating Kasbah of Telouet, we pass at Aït Ben Haddou, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. there we will have lunch, This ancient ksar (fortified village) has appeared in many famous films such as Gladiator and Game of Thrones. Walk through its narrow alleys, climb to the top for panoramic views, and discover traditional clay architecture that has stood for centuries.

we arrive to Sahara where our team and camels waiting us they are already build tents, and preparing dinner, we will meet our camel caravans and our team which are the Berbers, the people of Sahara, they have discovered ways of surviving in the desert that you can go away and learn. Together with our Akabar team, we will make our way from watering hole to watering hole in a dromedary caravan with enough food for almost .

However, we can only achieve this if we support one another and work together as a team. Everyone will pitch in every day when it comes to setting up camp, gathering firewood, and preparing food. Of course, we'll have to improvise from time to time, but if everyone pulls together, we'll make it.. By the end you'll feel connected to the Sahara's landscape and gain a profound understanding of its eco-system to be able to work with it as opposed to being completely beaten by it.

2nd Day: After breakfast, we will stop at farm of our families to see local plants in local farm henna, animals, plants...etc after we climb the mountain Bani where we can see Sahara dunes panorama, see from far the Iriki Lakes, we will have lunch in the beautiful oasis of palm trees Achgig, then after lunch we walk indirection to dunes, we see how the plants and animals are different from Sahara desert to Sahara dunes, night in a calm dune called Hennina.

3rd Day: today we are going to discover the biggest dunes of south Sahara, Erg Chegaga, but the part which isn't touristic and the one faraway and, it's calm... go to discover a secret river hidden in dunes to see the plants and animals of Sahara dunes, there are possibilities to see sand fish, gazelles, and finics...etc

...lunch in a big Tamarisk tree under its shadow which is in the dunes, we come back to our dunes, in the late afternoon there are possibilities to play some local games on dunes, also to find out the traces... we also can make some local beauty like some henna tattoo or kayal if you like, we collect wood for fire at night, Sandbread bread...another night under stars.

4th day: this day we go to a beautiful gorge river first we will stop at a friendly nomad family, where we are welcome to sleep with them, we will cook together local meals, , they will teach your their games which are more handy ones...they show you their donnkes, goats, and chicken, at night some telling stories from the berber culture, sleeping under stars together outside with nomad children...

5th day: today we walk in a beautiful gorge river Oued Lmhacer with natural lakes, you can really swim under Palm trees, the water is a source and very clean , After our last lunch in the Sahara desert jeep pick us up indirectly to Zagora arrives afternoon at a beautiful Riad in Zagora after Sahara it's good always to have a beautiful calm Riad in nature especially after much relaxing and deep Sahara impressions and also enjoying the swimming pool etc...here we can book you Le petite jardin riad or Dar Nakhla.

6th Day , our, taxi or minibus pick you up -Drive to Marrakech in short way Marrakech arrives there around afternoon so clients can have a chance to see old Medina and soul, and later dinner together in this famous Jamma Elfna Square.

Overnight stay in a riad or hotel in Marrakech.
