

Risk and Liabilities

All the Nepal Tours are performed under the strict rules and regulations of the tourism board of Nepal. We aren't accountable for any change or cancellation of the trip under unavoidable situations like alternate in rules and regulations of the country, government regulations, herbal screw ups, political instability, cancellation of flight, delay, illness or accident, a breakdown of a vehicle, and so on. Any more fees incurred due to such occasions shall be borne by the customer. Consequently, journey insurance is exceptionally encouraged.

Trip Cancellation

If you want to cancel your tour for any reason, you have to write down it to us 15 days before your journey departure date. We shall approve it as canceled most effective after receiving a valid written be the notice from the customer. However USD 200 Per person will be charged for cancel the trip. If the purpose to your cancellation is true like injury or serious illness, you may postpone your tour or switch your booking to another person who meets all of the requirements for the journey. But, we are not charging any amount for postpone or switch your trip inside 15 days prior to your journey date. Generally Deposit amount is nonrefundable.