DESCRIPTION

The Sportsman occupies a site area of 0.20 acres with access front and back. The Property comprises a mainly detached public house on the ground floor with two storey residential accomodation above. On the ground floor is a kitchen, bar area, W/C facilities, store rooms and the stairs leading down to a cellar. To the first and second floor is a two bedroom flat with a bathroom and two attic rooms on the second floor. Externally on the right hand side of the site is a single storey ancillary building which is party converted into a modern office. The building also offers W/C facilities, a garage with storage room above and another room which is currently used for storage. There is on site parking for approximately 6 cars. To the rear of the public house is a garden area which offers a patio and a shingle garden. On the rear boundary is a wide metal gate which provides access to Windmill Drive for vehicles.

SALE

£875,000 for the freehold interest, subject to contract on an unconditional basis only.

RATES

The Valuation Office Agency (VOA) uses 'fair maintainable turnover' to value public houses. This is the annual income a reasonably efficient landlord could expect to achieve on a certain date. Any other use would be subject to normal valuation and will need reassessing.

VAT

We understand that VAT is not payable.
