A VIBRANT CREATIVE LOCAL COMMUNITY

FLOURISHING LOCALLY

Encompassing Farringdon, Clerkenwell and Smithfield, EC1 is packed with history and is the epicentre of London's emerging tech district.

16 Kirby Street is just 300 metres from Farringdon Station in the heart of this fast evolving neighbourhood. Occupiers can enjoy vibrant culture and lifestyle on their doorstep as well as multiple rapid transport options.

Nearby Hatton Garden and Leather Lane have a range of eateries, a weekday market, hotels and gyms. Clerkenwell is thriving urban hub with bars, restaurants and extensive local amenities, and Smithfield will soon be the Museum of London's new location.

The Barbican Centre is less than a mile way and hosts classical and contemporary music concerts, theatre performances, film screenings and art exhibitions. It also houses a library, three restaurants, and a tropical conservatory.

LONDON'S BEST CONNECTIONS

The Elizabeth Line, Farringdon Station, which is just a 4 minute walk from the building, is now one of London's most important and well-connected transport hubs, offering multiple Underground lines and a National Rail service.

As well as providing direct access to three London airports, it is the only station where The Elizabeth Line (east-west) intersects with Thameslink (north-south) meaning optimal and fast connectivity serving the capital and beyond.

There are local cycle routes and frequent bus services from Farringdon Station on 6 routes.
