The Site

Situated in a tucked away position within the village of Fishburn, this generous plot of approximately 0.13 acres offers a rare opportunity for those seeking a spacious workshop, storage yard or potential site (subject to planning consent).

The plot features two single-storey workshops of concrete construction with a pitched roof. Internally, the workshops extend over a wide open plan footprint, with ample head height and exposed steel roof trusses, making it ideal for joinery/carpentry, secure storage and light industrial work. The workshops are currently equipped with a variety of tools, benches and equipment, however, this can be removed on request.

Following a measured survey, the workshops benefit from the following Gross Internal Areas:

Workshop 2	59.85	644

Tenure

The property is held Freehold.
