Description

This Victorian built corner building offers a prominent self-contained entrance from Redchurch Street. The office space has been recently refurbished to an excellent standard with a new kitchen, flooring and lighting throughout. There are windows across two elevations providing excellent levels of natural light as well as impressive ceiling heights too. The floor can be offered on traditional lease terms or fully managed and serviced by the Landlord inclusive of all outgoings.

Location

The building occupies a prominent corner position at the junction of Redchurch Street and Shoreditch High Street. The location is highly recognisable and sought after due to the wealth of neighbouring amenities, including Box Park, Shoreditch House, Brat, The Smoking Goat and Ceconi's, and the rebranded One Hundred Shoreditch Hotel. Shoreditch High Street Station is just to the south, whilst London Liverpool Street and Old Street Station are both accessible within a 5 and 10-minute walk respectively.
