Description

Fairfield House is a modern four storey prominent office building located in the North End area of Portsmouth a short distance from Portsmouth City Centre and the Continental Ferry Port, and with easy access to the M275/M27/A3(M). Fairfield House has a front access from Kingston Crescent with car park access off Heathfield Road via a security gate.

The 3rd floor is a modern refurbished self contained open plan office suite.

Location

The property is at the northern fringe of Portsmouth City Centre and 1.5 miles from the M27. Portsmouth railway station is within 1.5 miles from the property and the Continental Ferry Port is approximately 150 yards away. Commercial Road and the Cascades shopping precinct are approximately 1 mile to the south. Kingston Crescent provides a polarisation of commerce owing to its excellent accessibility by both public and private transport combined with it being situated equidistant from the motorway and prime shopping area. Transport links and retail facilities nearby provide a strong attraction to a workforce.
