DESCRIPTION

This to-be-redeveloped commercial building will provide high-quality Grade A accommodation arranged over the ground, first and second floors. Designed to meet modern occupier requirements, the scheme will offer efficient floorplates, excellent natural light and a contemporary specification throughout.

With its strong visual presence and adaptable layout, the building will appeal to a broad range of occupiers seeking well-presented workspace just outside Richmond town centre. In addition to traditional office users, the property is ideally suited to medical, healthcare and wellness operators, with alternative Class E uses also considered.

The accommodation can be taken as a whole or subdivided to suit individual tenant requirements, subject to final layout, servicing and access arrangements. The development will focus on delivering:

- High-specification Grade A space with strong ESG performance
- Efficient comfort cooling and modern LED lighting
- Excellent natural light and a high-quality arrival experience
- Clear visibility on occupational costs and delivery timelines

Furnishing options are available, with selected floors capable of being delivered fully fitted and furnished.

LOCATION

243-253 Lower Mortlake Road is ideally positioned between Richmond and Kew, offering quick access to transport links, local amenities, and key routes across southwest London. North Sheen Station is only a short walk away, with the A316 and Lower Richmond Road close by for easy travel by car. Everyday essentials such as Sainsbury's, gyms, cafés, and community services are all within immediate reach.

The area also benefits from excellent outdoor spaces, including Old Deer Park, the Thames riverside paths, and the world-famous Kew Gardens. This blend of convenience, connectivity, and greenery makes the location practical, well-connected, and appealing for both work and daily life.
