

Existing Layout

The building is filled with character and provides scope to create a unique leisure destination. The existing entrance has a grand staircase and presents well connecting the entrance directly to the ground floor as well as the upper floor.

