Location

Whittlesey is an established market town located approximately 6 miles east of Peterborough, offering occupiers a strong local catchment, thriving community and a range of independent retailers, professional services and amenities.

The town benefits from excellent connectivity via the A605, providing direct access to Peterborough and the wider road network, including the A47 and A1(M), offering convenient links across the East of England and beyond.

With its accessible location, strong residential base and lower occupational costs compared with nearby city locations, Whittlesey provides an attractive destination for retail, office and service-based occupiers.

DESCRIPTION

A well-positioned corner commercial unit offering excellent visibility and a generous amount of shop frontage onto Eastgate Mews and Grosvenor Road, ideally suited for a variety of retail, office, or service-based occupiers.

The property provides a main office/retail area, with the benefit of a separate smaller office and WC accommodation. Located close to Whittlesey town centre and nearby free public car parking, the premises offer a convenient and accessible location for both customers and staff.

An excellent opportunity for businesses seeking a prominent trading position within this established market town.
