Description

Originally completed in 2004 in the second phase of industrial development the properties comprise a pair of adjoining warehouse units of steel portal frame construction with steel profiled cladding.

The units interconnect at ground and mezzanine level and easily combine for a single occupier but can also be self contained.

There is a generous yard/parking area to the front of the units which could be separately secured. The recent refurbishment works provide great flexibility for configuration and fit out which will optimise the occupiers use of the building.
