SITUATION

Dagley Park enjoys a peaceful rural location to the north of the village of Shalford, and west of the A281 Horsham Road, to the south of Guildford in Surrey.

Shalford Railway Station offers frequent services to Reading, Gatwick Airport and London Waterloo (via Guildford) in less than one hour.

Local facilities are available in Shalford, with more comprehensive amenities being found in Bramley (1.75 miles), Godalming (3.5 miles), and Guildford (3.5 miles).

The park is surrounded by woodland, the River Wey/Wey & Arun Canal runs to the west across the fields and the railway line runs to the north.

Nearby places of interest include Shalford Mill (National Trust), Chantry Wood and Guildford Castle.

Activities available in the area include cricket club, golf course.

Planning Permission & Site Licence

The park has the benefit of permanent planning permission and Site Licence granted by Guildford Borough Council for the accommodation of a maximum of 32 park homes.

Site Licence for Dagley Farm (ref: 2332 dated 28 March 2023).

The attached conditions state that the park homes stationed shall be for residential use only and that no more than 32 park homes shall be sited.

The pitch fee review date is January each year and pitch fees are reviewed in line with CPI.

THE RESIDENTIAL PARK

Access to the park is via Dagley Lane leading from Horsham Road (A281) which links Shalford with Guildford to the north.

Dagley Lane has a splayed tarmac surfaced entrance which leads past a car parking area (for the adjacent railway) and on to the park and some residential housing.

The park has been developed with 32 residential park homes, comprising of 29 single units and 3 twin unit park homes all being privately owned. One single park home is owned by the park manager who does not pay a pitch fee.

The privately owned homes have a lifetime security of tenure in accordance with Mobile Homes Act agreements. Home ownership and permanent occupation is restricted to those aged 45 and above.

There are communal parking areas at the front and in the middle of the park.

There are 32 car parking spaces, for which the park homeowners (22) pay a monthly rent.

PARK BUILDINGS

There is a storage barn with corrugated roof and elevations located next to the car parking area
