Description

This is a highly visible and prominent three storey retail unit with a modern glass shop frontage.

The central entrance door opens into an open plan sales area. There are stairs at the rear of the unit that provide access to the first floor which is almost entirely open plan and further provides access to the second-floor staff/kitchen area and male and female WCs.

Location

Strategically located in the heart of Bedford's central business district, Allhallows presents a compelling opportunity for commercial property investors seeking a premises with strong visibility, high footfall, and long-term growth potential.

This established town centre location benefits from immediate proximity to Bedford Bus Station, ensuring consistent pedestrian traffic and excellent transport connectivity for both customers and employees. Surrounded by national retailers, independent businesses, and ongoing regeneration projects, Allhallows offers a well-balanced commercial environment ideal for retail, office, hospitality, or mixed-use developments.

Bedford itself is a key regional town with a growing population, supported by significant infrastructure investment and strong commuter links to London, Cambridge, and the Midlands. Allhallows is central to this growth, offering not only short-term returns but also long-term capital appreciation as the town centre continues to evolve. Especially with Bedford set to become on the UK premier entertainment destination with Universal Studios opening in circa 2031.
