Location

Halesowen is strategically located in the Black Country, approximately 8.6 miles West of Birmingham. The town sits within the Metropolitan Borough of Dudley and forms part of the Black Country conurbation. Its position places it at the heart of one of the UK's most significant industrial regions, with excellent access to the broader West Midlands metropolitan area, which has a population of over 2.9 million people.

Halesowen benefits from its position near Junction 3 of the M5 motorway, providing excellent connectivity to the wider regional motorway network including the M6 and M42. This strategic location makes it attractive for both residential commuters and businesses requiring distribution access across the Midlands.
