The Sidings

Location

The property is accessed via a shared private access road leading from Station Road, which in turn provides direct access to the development entrance gates.

The site is located approximately 0.5 miles west of Claverdon Village Centre and lies within close proximity to Claverdon Railway Station, offering convenient transport connections.

Claverdon is situated approximately 6 miles west of Warwick, 8 miles north of Stratford-upon-Avon, and 3 miles east of Henley-in-Arden. The site benefits from good strategic connectivity, being located around 5 miles from Junction 15 of the M40 Motorway, providing onward access to the wider regional and national road network.

The property is set within a predominantly rural environment, characterised by nearby residential dwellings, open countryside, and surrounding farmland, contributing to the site's semi-rural character and setting.

Description

Units 1 The Sidings forms part of Station Works, a modern development of three detached business units built in the late 2000's. The site benefits from secure gated access, well-kept grounds and an excellent position beside Claverdon Railway Station, offering strong links to Warwick, Stratford-upon-Avon and the wider Midlands.

The unit is of contemporary construction with profile metal and timber cladding, glazed elevations, and electrically operated roller-shutter doors. The roof incorporates translucent roof lights, providing good natural light throughout.

Unit 1 is fitted as modern office accommodation, offering a bright, well-presented working environment suitable for a range of professional uses.

The unit offers flexible, secure and well-connected commercial space in an attractive semi-rural setting.
