Description

6 Britannia Street is an attractive self-contained building, comprising 1,100 sq. ft arranged over three floor levels. The building has recently benefitted from a refurbishment to a high standard and is available with the benefit of existing furniture (desks & task chairs).

The ground floor includes a reception area, a boardroom and an additional workspace that could be used as an additional meeting room or space to accommodate a further 6 desks.

The first floor is the principal workspace and provides an open plan space with desking for up to 12x staff. At lower ground level are the refurbished WCs, shower facilities, a kitchen and a further meeting room / break out space.

The specification includes LED lighting, carpet flooring, gas central heating and raised access floors.

Location

6 Britannia Street is perfectly situated in Leeds' central business district, next to Wellington Street and within a short walk of Wellington Place, Central Square and Park Square.

A wealth of amenities are on the door-step of the building including a variety of amenity at Wellington Place and along St Paul's Street.

Leeds Train Station is within less than 5 minutes' walking distance.
