Description

The property comprises a former parochial hall of brick construction. The building was built in the late 1870's and incorporates a main rectangular two-storey building with gabled roof and a smaller two-storey structure on the north-easter corner of the plot. A single storey element projects at the front beyond the volume of the former hall to align with the pavement of Oldridge Road. The property has consent for use as a business storage unit (Class B8).

Location

The property is located on the north side of Oldridge Road close to its junction with the A24 (Balham Hill) in the London Borough of Wandsworth. The A24 provides a direct route to the A3 to the north and M25 motorway to the south.

The area is well served by public transport. Balham and Clapham South London Underground Station's (Northern Line & Network Rail Services) are within walking distance of the property. There are also several bus routes which operate within the area.

Terms

A new full repairing and insuring lease is available for a term by agreement at a rent of £85,160 per annum exclusive (£20 psf) plus VAT if payable. Subject to Contract.

Rates

The property currently has a rateable value of £19,000 pa effective from the 1st April 2026 to present. Interested parties are to make their own enquiries via The London Borough of Wandsworth.
