Unit B1, Victoria House, London, EC2A 4DQ

Description

An interesting lower ground floor office, within a popular multi let period former warehouse building and accessed via an attractive communal entrance directly off Leonard Circus.

The space has new lighting and wooden flooring, with shared WC facilities and a lift. Exposed cast iron columns give character and the space benefits from air conditioning.

The premises will be of particular interest to creative occupiers who seek economical studio/office space with the added bonus of some excellent street food vendors literally on your doorstep!

** update ** with the new planning uses class shake up in September 2020 the space may now lend itself well to alternative uses such as education, training and therapy and/or leisure, gym and wellness

Location

Located on the corner of Paul Street and Leonard Street. Located within the heart of the "Shoreditch Triangle" and just a short walk to Old Street Roundabout. This busy mixed-used area is occupied by many thriving businesses and is well served by shops, amenities, eateries and bars. The property can be easily reached from Old Street Station being only 5 minutes' walk away. Liverpool Street and Moorgate Stations are also within easy walking distance and is served by numerous bus routes
