COMMERCIAL PREMISES

11 HIGH STREET, BUXTON, SK17 6ET

LOCATION

The property is situated in a highly visible and prominent spot in Buxton town centre. It offers a rare opportunity to secure a high-visibility location in one of the Peak District's most sought-after tourist and residential hubs. Boasting significant pedestrian footfall and excellent proximity to Buxton Market Place, this property is ideally suited for a variety of uses or development opportunities.

This versatile space benefits from a high-profile frontage within the vibrant Higher Buxton area, attracting both local trade and substantial tourist traffic along the A515. Connecting to the A53 the property is situated with direct links towards the North Staffordshire conurbation and M6 motorway.

DESCRIPTION - 360 Tour Click Here

The ground floor provides a generous, light-filled open-plan retail area. Designed with clear-span layout, the space is ideal for boutique retail, showrooms, or high-end professional services. Its prominent frontage onto High Street provides an inviting point of entry for high-footfall tourist and local trade.

To the rear, the property is accessed via the Market Street Car Park into the rear the loading area.

The first floor offers a substantial open-plan footprint that benefits from planning permission for restaurant and wine bar usage. This presents an exceptional opportunity for an operator to create a destination venue in a high-demand location. The open-plan configuration allows for a highly adaptable fit-out, whether you are planning an intimate bistro, a contemporary bar, or a high-capacity dining space.

Formally utilised as a mix of residential and retail space, the first-floor has had the original second floor removed to provide high ceilings and natural light.
