LOCATION

The property comprises an attractive five-storey building, providing versatile and well-appointed office accommodation.

The spacious lower ground floor features a 90-seat lecture theatre, offering an excellent additional amenity.

Mayfair is recognised as one of the world’s most prestigious and sought-after addresses, renowned for its exclusivity and exceptional location.

The area is home to a strong presence of leading international financial and professional occupiers, alongside some of the finest retail destinations in the world, including Bond Street and Oxford Street.

The property also benefits from a substantial south-facing rear garden, providing generous space for entertaining and outdoor use. The garden extends to approximately 1,200 sq ft.

The surrounding area is occupied by an extensive range of international corporate businesses, restaurants, luxury hotels and exclusive private members’ clubs, including The Biltmore Hotel, Claridge’s, Lucky Cat by Gordon Ramsay, The George Club and Selfridges.

The property is situated directly opposite The Chancery Rosewood Hotel, occupying the iconic former U.S. Embassy on Grosvenor Square. Reimagined by renowned British architect Sir David Chipperfield, the hotel opened in 2025 and features 146 guest rooms and suites, alongside a range of publicly accessible spaces including formal and casual dining and entertainment venues, as well as an Asaya wellbeing facility.

In addition, Grosvenor has undertaken an ambitious transformation of Grosvenor Square, with the enhancement programme scheduled for completion by 2027.

CONNECTIVITY

43 Upper Grosvenor Street occupies an enviable position in the heart of central London, with exceptional access to both road and rail networks.

The property is within easy walking distance of Bond Street, Green Park, Marble Arch and Oxford Circus Underground stations, offering convenient connections across London and onward access to national and international rail services and airports. The nearby Elizabeth line entrance at Bond Street, located on Davies Street, provides further enhanced connectivity, with Heathrow Airport accessible in approximately 30 minutes.
