SUMMARY

Haggis Farm presents an exciting opportunity to rent an established equestrian holding in a superb location, close to Cambridge. The property has potential to continue as an equestrian property. It is also considered that the property presents an attractive opportunity for redevelopment to alternative commercial, amenity or leisure uses, subject to securing the necessary consents.

The Landlord is open to proposals for a continuation of the equestrian use, as well as proposals for a full redevelopment of the site. In these circumstances, an option for a long lease (99-years or more) or other similar arrangement will be considered.

INTRODUCTION

The property extends to 43.10 hectares (106.50 acres) and is currently in equestrian use as a livery yard and polo facility. The site currently benefits from 42 stables set across the yard, which consists of a range of modern and traditional agricultural buildings. A period 7 bed farmhouse is located adjacent to the yard. The site is accessed via a private drive leading directly onto the A603, within meters of the M11 Junction 12 Haggis Farm Interchange.

The land is Grade 2 and currently down to grass, with part of the land currently providing two polo pitches. There is also an outdoor arena on site measuring approximately 100m x 50m.

THE OPPORTUNITY

Haggis Farm offers an exciting opportunity to either:

Rent an existing equestrian property with on-site accommodation and excellent links to Cambridge.

Redevelop the site to take advantage of potential for alternative uses including, commercial, amenity, and leisure uses. The footprint of the buildings on site (excluding the farmhouse) extends to 1,580 sqm (17,000 sqft).

The Landlord is open to considering offers on a range of bases, including an option for a long lease to facilitate the full development of the site. In this case, a long lease of 99-years or more will be considered.

The Property is being offered either as a whole or in lots. The lotting plan enclosed indicates a potential split of the site. However, the Landlord is open to considering deviations to the proposed lotting and any such deviations should be clearly detailed when a proposal is submitted.

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

The property at Haggis Farm, Barton is formed of a single parcel that extends to 43.10 hectares (106.50 acres) and comprises:

A four-bedroom farmhouse.

Extensive range of modern and traditional buildings used for stabling and storage associated with the current equestrian use.

An approximately 100m x 50m riding arena.

Land currently used as polo pitches and grazing.

The property is currently used as a livery yard and polo facility, having been in such a use for several decades. The site currently hosts a number of equestrian/polo events and has previously been used for events such as the Strawberries & Creem Festival and Cambridge Rock Festival.

The farmhouse is of brick construction under a tile roof and is currently in need of repair, modernisation and improvement throughout. The buildings are predominantly of modern, steel/concrete portal framed construction, with some more traditional brick-built structures. Again, these are in need of extensive repair and improvement works to ensure they remain weatherproof and in good condition.
