The Property

Comprising of a 6-level period property, totalling 4,529 sq ft / 421 sq m (NIA) / 6,081 sq ft / 565 sq m (GIA),

The self-contained upper parts present a range of opportunities for a purchaser. The floors are in need of comprehensive works to upgrade and reimagine the accommodation, whether for re-letting or occupation as an owner-occupier.

The famous wine bar and eatery El Vino, dating back more than 100 years, occupies the ground floor and basement. Now owned by Davy's Wine Merchants - which itself was established in 1870 - the premises are a true piece of Fleet Street history.

The Offering

The building benefits from a revenue stream from the wine bar on the lower two floors, whilst the upper parts offer an office refurbishment opportunity for a developer, investor or occupier, and significant value-add opportunities.

Subject to obtaining the necessary consents, there may be scope to extend the premises to the rear and reconfigure the circulation space, to include potentially installing a passenger lift.

The property may also be suitable for conversion to a range of alternative uses, including residential or a boutique apart-hotel scheme, subject to obtaining the necessary consents,

Although not a Listed building, the property is situated within one of the City of London's 28 'Conservation Areas' - a designation made to preserve and enhance historic properties.

The building sits within the Fleet Street Quarter Business Improvement District, an area witnessing an unprecedented level of development and upgrading public spaces, with the aim of creating a cohesive, future-proof location to "work, visit, live, and invest in".

Tenure

The property is available on a new 125 year lease, with vacant possession of the upper parts, and with the benefit of a lease over the ground floor & basement to Davy's of London (Wine Merchants) Ltd for a term expiring in July 2036, excluded from L & T Act 1954, subject to a mutual break option in June 2028 and annually thereafter, at a rent of £90,000 per annum, and rent reviews in September 2027 & 2032.
