Location

The building enjoys an enviable position overlooking Embankment Gardens, one of central London's most cherished green spaces. The location is at the heart of London's commercial and cultural landscape, with the Thames Path, Embankment station, and the vibrant South Bank within moments' reach. The gardens themselves serve as an extension of the working environment, providing an ideal setting for informal meetings, lunch breaks, or simply a moment of respite during the working day. This rare combination of prominent West End connectivity and peaceful garden aspect creates an exceptional workplace setting that few London addresses can match.

Connectivity is excellent with three underground stations within 5 minutes walking distance; Charing Cross National Rail station is directly adjacent to the property, with Waterloo station c. 10 minutes walking distance.
