VIEW VIRTUAL TOUR

St Dunstan's Building is a well located property to the west of Worcester City Centre which is currently occupied by the Heart of Worcestershire College for higher education provision.

The property is accessed from The Butts, just off the main A44 which forms part of the circular routes for Worcester City Centre. To the east of the property is the main shopping/entertainment areas for Worcester whilst to the west is the picturesue River Severn.

Within the neighbourhood is the well known landmark, The Hive, Europe's first joint university and public library, Virginia House student accommodation and the Cattle Market car park.

The A44 runs west across the River Severn towards Bromyard and Leominster whilst south east via London Road direct access is provided to Junction 7 of the M5 motorway and the Southern Link Road.

Worcester, in the West Midlands, is located 31 miles south east of Birmingham, 27 miles north of Gloucester and 23 miles north east of Hereford. Worcester has excellent connectivity being to the west of junctions 6 and 7 of the M5 motorway leading to the M42 and M6. Worcester also has direct mainline rail links to both Birmingham and London.
