ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

DESCRIPTION

1 Hobart Place comprises an attractive Grade II Listed former townhouse providing approximately 4,011 sq ft of high-quality, self-contained office accommodation arranged over lower ground, ground and four upper floors.

The property has been recently refurbished and redecorated throughout, retaining a wealth of original period features whilst providing a modern and well-presented working environment. The accommodation benefits from excellent natural light, wooden flooring to selected areas, central heating and comfort cooling to principal rooms.

A glass-fronted passenger lift serves all floors, while additional amenities include shower facilities, cycle storage, kitchens and a private roof terrace. The building is offered as a whole and would provide an impressive and distinctive self-contained headquarters for a wide range of Class E occupiers.

Situated on the edge of Belgravia at the junction with Grosvenor Gardens, the property occupies a highly sought-after central London location, approximately five minutes' walk from Victoria Station and surrounded by an excellent selection of cafés, restaurants, hotels and other amenities.
