PORT OF IPSWICH

The Port of Ipswich is strategically situated at the head of the River Orwell, 12 miles from the open sea and within a short sailing time from the North Sea shipping lanes, handling 2 million tonnes of cargo per year. It is the UK's leading grain export port. In addition to routinely and efficiently handling grain, cement, and aggregates, the Port of Ipswich expertly manages forest products, containers, and project cargo, as well as a broad portfolio of dry bulk cargo, including animal feed and fertiliser. The Port boasts 1,800m of berths across West Bank, Cliff Quay, and the Wet Dock, enhancing its capacity and operational efficiency.

SIZEWELL C

Sizewell C will be a 3.2-gigawatt power station generating low-carbon electricity for around 6 million homes, which will be a close copy to Hinkley Point C.

This is a huge and significant opportunity for both the country and the region with 70% of the projects construction spend going to UK companies which will help them to embed nuclear skills and expand their workforce.
