Description

This bright first floor offices in a warehouse style building is undergoing a comprehensive refurbishment with new lighting, new electrics, decoration, new flooring and is approached through an attractive gated courtyard entrance. The offices are open plan and benefit from industrial style Crittall windows on 3 sides affording excellent natural light. There is a kitchen/break-out area and tea point together with demised male & female toilets. There are also secure cycle racks.

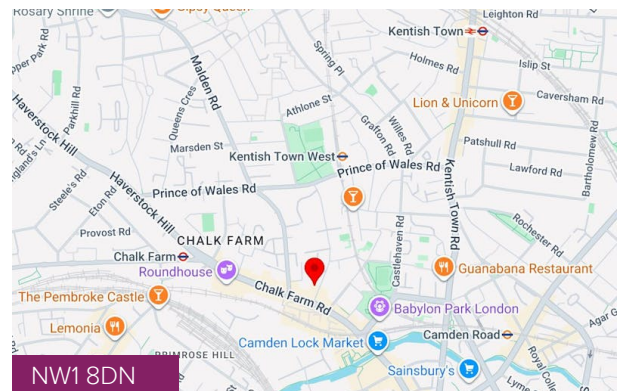

Location

The building is located at the Chalk Farm Road end of Harmood Street which is opposite the Stables Market just 4 minutes walk from Chalk Farm Road Underground (Northern line) or Kentish Town West Overground which provides an excellent east west route between Barking/Stratford & Richmond. There are a wide array of cafe's, restaurants, street food and entertainment venues as well as pubs & bars. Some 2,000 new homes are being built in Chalk Farm which will significantly change the make-up of the area over the next 2 years.
