Description

A self-contained, newly refurbished ground floor E-class unit set within a well-established mixed-use building, the space boasts impressive ceiling heights of 3.2 metres alongside a dedicated skylight window that draws in generous natural light, complementing the open-plan layout to create an environment that is both functional and inspiring. Complete with self-contained access and a private WC facility, the unit is entirely self-sufficient and well suited to a variety of occupiers including health and fitness operators, creative studios, and professional office users. Ideally located just moments from Hoxton Overground station, the unit offers outstanding transport links in one of East London's most vibrant and sought-after neighbourhoods.

Location

Set on Long Street in the heart of Hoxton, 18B sits at the centre of one of East London's most dynamic neighbourhoods. Hoxton Overground Station is moments away, offering swift connections across the city, with Shoreditch High Street station also close by. Hoxton Square's bars and restaurants, the buzz of Shoreditch, and the creative energy of the surrounding streets are all within easy walking distance — placing culture, dining, and connectivity right on the doorstep.
